

WRIGHT STATE UNIVERSITY

Dean, College of Education and Human Services

- Serves as principal officer and spokesperson for College of Education and Human Services; reports to the Provost and works with other Wright State University deans to formulate and implement university policy.
- Supervises departmental chairs and faculty in formulating and implementing college goals and policy.
- Responsible for strategic planning; program development; faculty/staff/student development; resource allocation and budget management; research promotion; fund raising; enrollment management; collegiate partnership initiatives; diversity awareness and planning; and relations with external constituencies.
- Participates in national discussions of educational renewal and maintains a leadership role in relationships with regional education entities and other external constituencies.
- Provides leadership for Wright State University's involvement in the Dayton Regional STEM School (DRSS).